PREMIER WEDS

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, and Ms. Adele Koh were married at 6.30 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) in a private ceremony at the Premier's home in Norwood.

The ceremony was attended only by members of the Premier's immediate family and a handful of close friends.

The wedding was celebrated by Mrs. Lois Darcy, a Civil Marriage Celebrant from Queensland, who is a close friend of the Premier.

She and her husband, Mr. Bill Darcy, a former Labor member of the Queensland Parliament, flew from Queensland for the ceremony.

Ms. Koh, whose divorce was made absolute at the end of last week, has resigned from the Premier's Department. She will continue to be known under her own name.

The Premier separated from his former wife in early 1972 and was divorced in December 1974.
